

REC AGENDA 1-5-23

Call to order, roll call

Public comment

President's musings

1. Goals for this year
2. Stay enthusiastic
3. Make this city a better place to live
4. My meeting with Council/Redevelopment Authority
5. We are working under the aegis of Council

Introduction of new member

City council report

Old business

1. Bylaws – all should have a copy. Main issue is attendance, second is officers
2. Red white and blue festival and the issue of sponsorship
3. Working with other groups
4. Business mixer

New business

1. Events for 2023 – We will get definite dates There are 14 events; we have nine members not including volunteers. I would like each member to be responsible for 1-2 of these:
 - a. Business mixer
 - b. City Clean-up
 - c. Wine event
 - d. River Rally
 - e. Birdhouse building
 - f. Wiffleball
 - g. PE in the Park
 - h. Summer sports programs
 - i. Friends' Day
 - j. Fourth of July event
 - k. Croquet
 - l. Tangled
 - m. Halloween parade
 - n. Christmas party
2. Projects for 2023: Again, these are things (in my opinion) that we can work towards. Each member, according to her or his interest, should look into one of these. Some of these are easy. Some may take many years
 - a. T-shirts – for members and as giveaways for volunteers
 - b. Inclusivity playground
 - c. Survey of parks/addition to parks
 - d. Give-aways
 - e. Outdoor exercise equipment at a park
 - f. Scavenger hunt

- g. Aaron Zolbrod
 - h. Amphitheater
 - i. Bylaws
 - j. Amphitheater
3. Selection of officers for 2023 – looking for volunteers
 - a. President – Frank J. would like to do this for another year
 - b. Treasurer
 - c. Secretary
 - d. VP
 - e. Social media person
 4. And 5. – I would like to put these last two in the back of people’s minds
 - a. Disc golf course behind high school
 - b. Future of the Polar Bear Plunge
